

Bluffton University
Church Matching Scholarship Program
2022-2023 Academic Year Participation Form

Bluffton University will match dollar for dollar the first $1,000 provided by any Christian church congregation. Beyond that amount, Bluffton will match $1 for every $4 from the congregation, up to full tuition. The congregation must provide a minimum award of $100 before the university will contribute matching funds. The university will match contributions regardless of financial need. Federal regulations prescribe rules for packaging aid. When church matching funds are submitted after initial aid has been sent to the student, the financial aid office may be required to revise a student's financial aid offer.

NOTE: This paper form can be completed and submitted via regular mail or fax. An online form is also available at: <https://www.bluffton.edu/church-scholarship>
